

ENVISION'23 FAQs

1. What is TechnoVIT?

A: TechnoVIT is the annual technical fest by VIT Chennai which focuses on all technical and research oriented domains. Students as well as experts from across the country participate in this annual event held in the first week of October.

2. Who should attend this event?

A: The pitch-a-thon is open to all university students from Chennai who have an innovative idea or a prototype for a product or service. To apply, you need to fill out an online application form.

3. What are the benefits of participating in the pitch-a-thon?

A: By participating in the pitch-a-thon, you will get a chance to present your idea to a panel of judges, mentors, investors, and industry experts. You will also get feedback, guidance, and exposure to the startup ecosystem. The top three teams will receive cash prizes and incubation support from the sponsoring companies.

4. What are the criteria for evaluating the pitches?

A: The pitches will be evaluated based on the following criteria: market need, feasibility, impact, novelty, and team. The judges will also consider the clarity, creativity, and persuasiveness of the presentation.

5. When and where will Envision 23 take place?

A: Envision 23 will take place at Vellore Institute of Technology, Chennai campus.

6. What is the duration and format of the pitch-a-thon?

A:

7. Who are the judges and mentors for the pitch-a-thon?

A: The judges and mentors for the pitch-a-thon are experienced entrepreneurs, investors, industry experts, and faculty members. They will provide feedback, guidance, and support to the participating teams throughout the event.

8. How can I learn more about Envision 23 and stay updated?

A: You can learn more about Envision 23 by following us on our social media platforms such as [Twitter], [Instagram], and [LinkedIn].